

TORNADO PATH STREWN WITH MANY VICTIMS

Hot Springs, Ark., and Houston, Texas, Are Visited by Twister.

MANY KILLED WHEN THEIR HOUSES FALL

Damage Resulting From Storms May Total a Million Dollars.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 25.—Twelve persons, eleven white and one negro, are known to be dead, one man is believed to be buried in the ruins of his home and about thirty are injured, some of them probably fatally, as the result of a tornado that swept through the thickly settled farming country about a mile east of the city limits of Hot Springs this afternoon. Many farm homes were demolished. All the dead and injured were farmers.

The city of Hot Springs suffered

Nothing But Goodness
in Everything Made With

Thousands of physicians and millions of housewives will swear to that. You've never tasted such wholesome, tempting, appetizing bakings—you've never enjoyed such uniformly perfect results. Calumet Baking Powder never fails—and it costs less to use than other kinds.

Received Highest Awards
New York State Fair—1914
St. Louis, Mo.—1904

Cheap and big can Baking Powders don't save you money. Calumet does—it's pure and far superior to sour milk and soda.

18 POUNDS OF BLOOD is the average quantity in a healthy adult, but it is the quality of the blood that determines our strength to resist sickness. With weak blood we find cold hands and chilly feet; in children an aversion to study, and in adults rheumatic tendencies.

In changing seasons get abundant fresh air and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals, because Scott's Emulsion is a rich blood-food that will increase both quantity and quality of the blood while it warms the body and helps carry off the impurities.

When multitudes of people are today taking Scott's Emulsion to avert winter sickness, and are giving it to their children, it is careless to neglect its benefits. Look out for substitutes.
Scott & Bower, Bloomfield, N. J.

no damage and no one was injured within its limits.
This information was brought to Little Rock by passengers on a Rock island train that reached here shortly after 11 o'clock tonight. All wires to Hot Springs are out of commission.
Practically all the dead were killed by the collapse of their homes. The dead are:

Killed in Home.
Mrs. A. E. Edwards and three children,
Mrs. George Tanner, Mrs. Paul Canada, Hayden Poe, two women and two children, unidentified, negroes cook on farm of O. H. Sumpter, name unknown.

Killed in Home.
Mrs. A. E. Edwards and three children,
Mrs. George Tanner, Mrs. Paul
Canada, Hayden Poe, two women and
two children, unidentified, negroes
cook on farm of O. H. Sumpter, name unknown.

Damage Resulting From
Storms May Total a Million Dollars.

Spill at Houston.
HOUSTON, Nov. 25.—One dead, many injured—some seriously, others slight—were killed when their homes collapsed, Mrs. Tanner met instant death when a scintilla was driven through her head. Mrs. Canada's head was severed from her body by a flying timber from the wreck of her home. She died in a Hot Springs hospital from her injuries.

A man employed at the farm of Carl Hubert is missing. The tenant house in which he lived was demolished and it is believed his body is in the ruins.

Mrs. Kate Hite is in a Hot Springs hospital and is believed fatally injured.

Two handsome $29,000 country home of W. H. Maurice was demolished and the clubhouse of the Hot Springs Country club greatly damaged. The damage will probably reach $500,000.

Terminating as suddenly as it arose, the miniature cyclone passed over the city in a zigzag line leaving destruction in its path. It lasted but ten minutes, but during that time the colony of the city was forty miles an hour, according to the official report of the weather bureau.

Otto Hauke, foreman of Schott's bakery, was instantly killed when a live wire blown across the top of the structure, charged a sector of pipe which ran into the store where he was working.

Cotton Is Ruined.
In other parts of the city wires were blown down and for a period of time the street car system was put out of commission.

Several cotton sheds of the shipping company were totally demolished. There were about four thousand bales of cotton stored in the portion destroyed and they were injured by a heavy rain following the storm.

Two warehouses of Hogg-Dixon & Co. nearby were badly damaged when the storm tore down portions of the structure. About 12,000 bales of cotton were stored there at the time.

While R. E. Johnson, a groceryman, was looking at the ruin of his neighbor, W. H. Hartman, it was lifted up by the wind and blown across a fence into his yard where it rested on its side. The top of his own stable was blown off and sent fifty feet into the air.

The tops of many automobiles were ripped off, leaving cars exposed to the drenching rain.

Snow in Capital.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 25.—Snow commenced falling in Oklahoma City about 10 o'clock Thursday night and continued for an hour, followed by a steady rain. The weather bureau announced a temperature of forty degrees above zero with colder weather predicted for Friday.

Contempt of Court.
Defendant (in a loud voice):
"Justice! Justice! I demand justice!" Judge: "Silence! This defendant will please remember that he is in a courtroom—Penn State Froth."

Since John
Quit Drinking
By John's Wife

I'm the happiest little woman.
Is all this little town.
And my merry laugh and singing.
Takes the place of sigh and frown.
For JOHN HAS QUIT HIS DRINKING.
And is like himself once more.
And the world is just a paradise With such happiness to store.

One day I read some verses—"Mary's Miracle," the name.
And I said, that's John exactly.
And I'll send him the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT.
(As it was called by the name.)

And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.
And it didn't taste a little bit.
But no more, so he knew.
It was another kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.

And I said, that's John exactly.
And I'll send him the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT.
(As it was called by the name.)

And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.
And it didn't taste a little bit.
But no more, so he knew.
It was another kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.

And I said, that's John exactly.
And I'll send him the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT.
(As it was called by the name.)

And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.
And it didn't taste a little bit.
But no more, so he knew.
It was another kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.

And I said, that's John exactly.
And I'll send him the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT.
(As it was called by the name.)

And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.
And it didn't taste a little bit.
But no more, so he knew.
It was another kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.

And I said, that's John exactly.
And I'll send him the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT.
(As it was called by the name.)

And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.
And it didn't taste a little bit.
But no more, so he knew.
It was another kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.

NOTED NEGRO WHO WAS BURIED FEW DAYS AGO

TUSKEGEE, Ala., Nov. 25.—Dr.
Booker T. Washington, negro educator of national reputation and president of Tuskegee Institute, was buried here this week.

Dr. W. A. Bastedo, characterized the cause of death as a "nervous breakdown."

URGE PRESIDENT TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Message Forwarded by the Federation of Women's Clubs of Oklahoma.
Yesterday.

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 25.—The Oklahoma Federation of Women's Clubs, representing seven thousand clubwomen of the state, ask and be-seach you to use your good offices in the promulgation of an early peace between the warring nations of the old world.

Such a message was sent by Mrs.
Tom Hope, president of the Oklahoma Federation of Women's Clubs, to President Wilson today.

This was at the request of Miss Jane Adams of Chicago, chairman of the national peace movement.
Thanksgiving day had been set apart as the time for such an appeal to be made by the women of the country.

Dynamic Train; Kill 80.
LAREDO, Texas, Nov. 25.—Menger details have been received here of the dynamiting of a train on the National lines at some point between Monterey and Tampico, Mexico, on November 23. Eighty persons were reported to have been killed. Trains on this route have not been running for the past two days, but the reason was not made public.

The country between Tampico and Monterey is exceedingly mountainous and has been infested for the past six months by bandits known as Calabres.
They were formerly connected with Villa's army.

Chilean Steamer Lost.
TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 25.—Special advice to the Lodger tonight from Victoria, B. C., stated that the Chilean full-rigged, four-masted iron ship has been lost with all hands, numbering about twenty-five.

Carraza Moves.
LAREDO, Nov. 25.—General Car-raza, accompanied by his staff, and escorted by the United States army, left Laredo today for Monterrey.
General Alfredo Ricart, recently promoted to the rank of major general, in charge of the border, left today for Matamoros, accompanying the first chief as far as Monterrey.

All-American Opera Cast.
CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Clefonte Campbell, director of the Chicago Grand Opera company, tried out what was practically an all-American cast in the production of a German opera—Tannhauser—tonight.
He pronounced the result highly satisfactory. Francis MacLennan had the title role.

School Aspirations.
"She likes publicity, eh?"
"Does she? Why, she thinks the society column ought to make an item of it when she gives a little breakfast to a 'tramp'."

Policeman Kills Wife.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—William Street, assistant chief of police of Madison, Ill., tonight shot and killed his wife, Catherine, and then killed Charles E. Barner, a St. Louis policeman, who had attempted to act as peacemaker while the couple were quarreling on a street corner here.
Street escaped.

With Hairpins, of Course.
Mrs. Jenkins says she understands wireless telegraphy all right, this principle of the message through the air instead of a wire, but there's one thing puzzling her: How do you tunnel the air to the poles?—Sedgwick Pantagraph.

Easily Fixed.
"I'm sorry I can't take farewell tour," declared the great actress. "I don't believe I want to leave the stage, after all."

"Don't worry a bit," responded her manager. "I can easily arrange for a welcome-back tour, old girl."

The Undesired Result.
Her Best Friend—I heard Mr. Haggins, right before your other bean, caution you "dear."

Miss Sweetie—Yes, and it made me feel so cheap.

Come and Go.
"Do you keep any servants?"
"No, of course not."
"But I thought I saw one in your car."

"Oh we have servants on the premises a day or two at a time, but we don't keep them."

THROW SNOWBALLS
TO PUT OUT FIRE.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., Nov.
25.—By throwing snowballs on the roofs and against the sides of a house and burn today three hundred men, women and children expressed a blaze which threatened to destroy each structure.
The alarm brought the congregation from a nearby church and all indulged in throwing snow.

MODERN ATHLETIC FIELD FOR KENDALL

Oil Man to Build Stadium to Enclose Modern Gridiron.

READY NEXT SEASON

Another Enthusiast to Extend Pavement to the College.

It was announced last night by Kendall College officials, with one in a position to know, that a wealthy Tulsa oil man, who had a grudge attached to the school last year.

The name of the donor was not made public. However, it was said that he proposed school officials before the game yesterday that if Kendall was to be used until the field The seating capacity of the stadium will be about five thousand. It is understood. A model ground also will be constructed.

Another oil man made the promise contingent on the result of the game to extend the pavement from Admiral boulevard to the Kendall campus.

Both of these men announced last night that they would take immediate steps to fulfill their promise.

EVERETT KEMP A GOOD ENTERTAINER

Large Thanksgiving Crowd Impersonated at Convention Hall.

A large Thanksgiving crowd heard Everett Kemp in his monologue retelling of the well-known novel, "That Printer of Fables," last night at Convention hall. Mr. Kemp appeared as the fourth number of the popular Tulsa Community Lyceum course and proved an entertainer of rare ability.

As the course proceeds each succeeding number is classed as the best of its kind ever seen here. Kemp is all that could be asked as a polished impersonator. His is an art that to be remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novelist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

He is an actor of rare ability. His
interpretation of the novel from the
facile pen of the well-known novel-
ist, Harold Bell Wright, will long be
remembered by those who heard him.
Kemp did not dwell altogether on the
lines of the book, but read into it a little sermon and a message of his
own.

KAHN'S

The Biggest Reduction Sale of the Year Opens Here Today—

Hold tight to your dollar before you purchase elsewhere. This sale will be the greatest selling event of the year—and remember that Kahn's merchandise is of indisputable quality and prices here are always lower than elsewhere.

COME TODAY AND LET YOUR DOLLAR HAVE ITS GREATEST BUYING POWER
Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats and Suits, All Wool Shirts, Underwear, Dress Goods, Silks, Taffetas, Blankets and Comforts.

All go at quick disposal prices—prices that are lower than any other store dare to make.

OUR SHOE STOCK MUST GO

All thoughts of profit have been swept aside during this sale—Shoes must be sold and now is your opportunity to buy almost three pairs for what you pay elsewhere for one.

LADIES' AND MISSES' HOUSE SHOES, BOOTEES.
FALL SHOES FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

KAHN'S 15 EAST FIRST

BULLETS STOPPED
A RUNAWAY CROOK

Harry Baynes Received a Flesh Wound at Hands of Patrolman.

After taking a gun away from Harry Baynes, who was in the act of holding up people in front of the Tulsa hotel last night about 7 o'clock, it was necessary for Policeman W. L.
Clark to fire three shots at the prisoner when he ran. One of the shots hit Baynes in the calf of the right leg, inflicting a flesh wound.

He was taken to the police station and later a package was found at the scene of the shooting which he dropped in attempting to escape. It contained two pairs of new shoes and about 42 yards of black silk. The package was addressed to "Frank Clark, general delivery, Tulsa."

It is believed that Baynes committed a robbery at Sapulpa a few nights ago and had mailed the package to himself and then came here to receive it. The package was postmarked Sapulpa.

The prisoner was identified by Harry Stages, Bertillon expert, as Harry Baynes. He has been in trouble before, having been arrested in Pawnee in 1911. His aliases are "Brownie" and "Red."

SAD ACCIDENT TO
A HUNTING PARTY

Collinsville Man May Lose Arm as a Result of Accidental Discharge of Gun.

Special to The World.
COLLINSVILLE, Okla., Nov. 25.— Palmer Cooper, aged 25, was accidentally shot and perhaps fatally injured here at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
Two men and their wives were driving out of town for a hunt. Cooper and his wife occupied the back seat of the vehicle. They were still inside of town when the shotgun Cooper held was discharged and lodged a load of heavy shot under his right arm, practically severing it from his body.

The accident was perhaps due to some movement of a dog which sat at Cooper's feet in the hurry. Several local doctors were summoned and the wounds were dressed at once. The wounded man was sent to a Tulsa hospital on the afternoon train. He may die.

Special to The World.
BARTLESVILLE, Nov. 25.—W Whether or not Bartlesville is to have Sunday bowling alleys, with Sunday theaters later on, is the big issue confronting the people here, and during the coming weeks the matter is to be threwed out. On one side are the ministers and a number of church people, while the opposition is composed of other leading citizens, who contend that the city should not only have Sunday bowling, but also allow theaters to operate Sundays.

Mayer C. A. Lamin is to be appealed to, but the mayor has said that he will not order the bowling alleys closed, unless it is shown that it is a source of annoyance to persons living in the neighborhood. Two years ago, when the question of Sunday theaters was brought up, the ministers and many church people opposed the plan because the attendance at the churches was falling off. The Sunday opening plan was defeated and since that time Bartlesville has had no places of amusement open on Sundays. But the question is to be voted upon again and a bitter fight is certain.

Vanderbilt Surprises Sewanee.
NASHVILLE, Nov. 25.—Vanderbilt won the annual football game with the University of the South (Sewanee) today by a score of 28 to 3. Vanderbilt's marvelous winning streak came in the last quarter after the score had stood 24 to 6 in Sewanee's favor for three periods. Weather conditions were ideal.

BOWLING ALLEYS
RUN ON SUNDAY

"Close Up Sunday" Element Is Asat-ing Reform in Bartlesville: Ministers in Fight.

Special to The World.
BARTLESVILLE, Nov. 25.—W
Whether or not Bartlesville is to have Sunday bowling alleys, with Sunday
theaters later on, is the big issue confronting the people here, and during the coming weeks the matter is to be
threwed out. On one side are the ministers and a number of church
people, while the opposition is composed of other leading citizens, who
contend that the city should not only
have Sunday bowling, but also allow
theaters to operate Sundays.

Mayer C. A. Lamin is to be ap-
pealed to, but the mayor has said that he will not order the bowling alleys
closed, unless it is shown that it is a source of annoyance to persons living in the neighborhood. Two years ago, when the question of Sunday theaters

was brought up, the ministers and
many church people opposed the plan
because the attendance at the churches was falling off. The Sunday opening plan was defeated and since that time Bartlesville has had no
places of amusement open on Sundays. But the question is to be voted upon again and a bitter fight is certain.

Vanderbilt Surprises Sewanee.
NASHVILLE, Nov. 25.—Vanderbilt
won the annual football game with the University of the South (Sewanee)
today by a score of 28 to 3. Vanderbilt's marvelous winning streak came
in the last quarter after the score had stood 24 to 6 in Sewanee's favor for three periods. Weather conditions were ideal.